POSITION SUMMARY

The role of Consents Planner is to process resource consent applications within the framework and provisions of the RMA. The role aims to deliver workable solutions to the challenges that are encountered in the resource consenting process, which support sustainable environmental management within the Hawke's Bay Region.

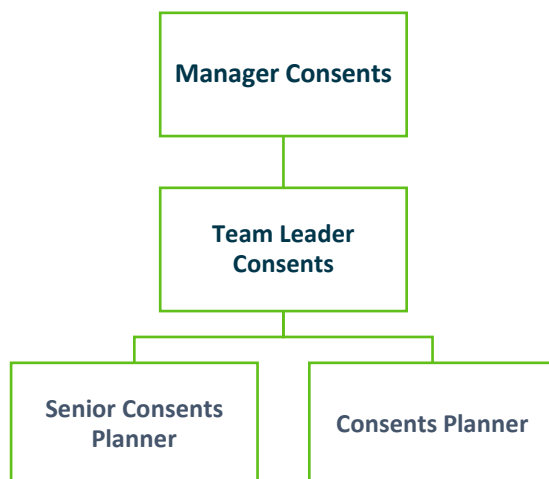

GROUP AND TEAM GOALS:

The Consents team provides resource consent services of the Hawke's Bay Regional Council (HBRC) through:

- Providing guidance and advice on resource consenting matters to stakeholders including the community, tangata whenua, resource consent applicants, resource consent holders, interested or affected parties and to HBRC and HBRC staff.
- Establishing and applying procedures for receiving, processing and managing resource consents.
- Assessing resource consent applications in terms of the Resource Management Act (RMA) and relevant Regional Plans and policies and reporting, recommending and determining (within the scope of delegations) whether resource consent applications should be approved, approved with conditions or declined.
- Representing HBRC decisions at any objections or appeals.

- Providing consent input to resource management investigations and policy development as and when required.

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

JOB SPECIFIC ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Maintain a high level of familiarity with and understanding of RMA, national policy statements, national environmental standards, Hawke's Bay Regional Plans and other relevant plans and strategies ensuring correct processes are followed.
- Ensure appropriate and accurate advice is provided at all levels of consenting, to both internal and external stakeholders.
- Ensure efficient and timely processing of resource consent applications evidenced by statutory time frames for processing resource consents being consistently met.
- Actively contribute to establishing, maintaining and following internal procedures for managing resource consents.
- Effectively participate in project teams (across the resource management group, the wider organisation or external as required).
- Ensure allocated work is accurately completed within accepted timelines and meets expectations.
- Actively participate in all Consents section activities.
- Demonstrate an understanding and ability to apply Quality Management practices.
- Contribute to the Quality Management System as part of everyday business practice, including developing, reviewing and improving business processes.
- Maintain a strong customer focus and a commitment to the continuous improvement program.
- Ensure that reports (s.42A etc.) and technical analysis documentation are prepared to a high standard and within timeframes as requested by Manager or the Team Leader.
- Ensure that contracts for external experts assisting the consent process are managed in accordance with HBRC processes.

COMMUNITY RELATIONSHIPS

Fostering good working relationships is fundamental to the successful achievement of strategic goals for HBRC. We know we can't achieve change without the people (our community) outside our business. As expressed under our purpose statement, "working with our community" is at the heart of everything we do. This is particularly relevant to our relations with Tāngata Whenua in terms of co-governance and co-management. Successful relationships involve building trust. Which in turn enables us to support each other to respond to new challenges as they arise.

This means:

- Professional attitude is projected at all times in dealing with external contacts.
- Information is accurate and is provided in a timely manner.
- Outcomes that are fair and clearly understood by both parties are achieved
- Customers are satisfied with responses to written or verbal requests for information.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

All Hawke's Bay Regional Council (HBRC) staff are expected to actively and enthusiastically promote the concept of continuous improvement in their work for HBRC. This means:

- Maintaining a positive overall attitude in the workplace, including promoting HBRC in a positive manner, as assessed by your peers and Manager
- Taking part in training opportunities provided by HBRC with an open mind, as assessed by pre and post training meetings with your Manager.
- Practicing the skills provided in training offered by HBRC, as assessed by regular feedback meetings with your Manager.
- Showing a strong team commitment, as indicated by peer feedback and your Manager's assessment.
- Practicing the concept of continuous improvement by showing initiative with new ideas and positively acknowledging other ideas.
- Giving honest and open feedback as and when required, aiming to constructively deal with all issues, as assessed by regular feedback meetings with your Manager.
- Deliver on project outcomes: on time and on budget.
- Displaying sound judgment and making responsible decisions.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

All staff are expected to follow established health and safety procedures while working for HBRC, and in accordance with policies developed by HBRC. This means:

- Complying with and adhering to HBRC's accepted standards and procedures.
- Where appropriate, taking responsibility for workplace hazards/risks you identify and communicated to management.
- Undertaking regular reviews of workplace risks/hazards that are present in your work.
- When, and if, necessary, participate in the investigation of accidents/incidents according to HBRC procedures.
- Undertaking appropriate and effective staff training when required or necessary.
- Promoting a healthy and safe workplace.
- Actively supporting health and safety initiatives.
- Comply with any rehabilitation plan designed with you for a return to work after an accident.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

When a Civil Defence event happens, you may be required to assist with carrying out the Council's Civil Defence responsibilities after providing required support for your family and dependants. All HBRC staff are expected to undertake such Emergency Management functions as are determined appropriate to meet HBRC's role and function in this area. This means:

- Undertaking such a role as is allocated for emergency management requirements.
- Participating in such exercises as are required to maintain a state of preparedness in HBRC.
- Responding to such requests to assume an emergency management role as are required by events.

- Understanding the contents of the relevant section of the Business Continuity Plan (BCP) and its implications for your role.
- Where the requirements of the role require it, review the relevance of the BCP for your team, section or Group on a regular basis.
