MEMORANDUM 4 TO PARTICIPANTS

Directions at Adjournment of the Hearing

18 November 2022

- 1 This memorandum sets out our directions following the adjournment of the hearing.
- 2 The hearing commenced in Ahuriri on 15 November 2022, with the second day (Wednesday 16) held in Waipawa. It reconvened in Ahuriri on the 17th November, and was adjourned a little before 1700h on that day.

- 3 Mr Matheson gave some verbal submissions prior to the adjournment to the hearing. We have a record of the main matters he raised.
- 4 Mr Matheson is to provide the applicant's right of reply to Ms Savage at the HBRC in writing no later than midday on Friday 2 December 2022. As he will well understand, no additional technical information can be included with the right of reply.
- 5 We expect that the right of reply will include the final set of resource consent conditions proposed by the Applicant, which are to be appended as a Word document.
- 6 If you have any questions about this minute, please contact Nadene Savage at the HBRC on 027 253 8259, who will confer with the commissioners as necessary.
